

1
2
3
4
5
6

7 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
8 NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

9
10 ERICKSON PRODUCTIONS, INC, et al.,
11 Plaintiffs,
12 v.
13 MARIELLEN BAKER, et al.,
14 Defendants.

Case No. 17-cv-02427-RS

ORDER DENYING APPLICATION FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER
AND SETTING BRIEFING SCHEDULE FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

15
16 In August of 2015, Erickson Productions, Inc. and Jim Erickson (collectively “Erickson”)
17 obtained a judgment in the principal amount of $450,000 against Kraig R. Kast following a jury
18 trial in Erickson Productions Inc., et al. v. Kast, Case No. 5:13-cv-05472-HRL (N.D. Cal) (“the 19 prior action”). Erickson now brings this case against Kast, Mariellen Baker, and various trusts, 20 seeking to set aside certain transactions alleged to have constituted fraudulent conveyances of 21 Kast’s assets. Contemporaneously, Erickson is pursuing motion practice in the prior case to have 22 the judgment therein amended to include some or all of the parties he has named here as additional 23 judgment debtors.

24 Erickson moves for a temporary restraining order in this action to preclude defendants
25 from engaging in further asset transfers. Because the transactions alleged in the complaint to have 26 been fraudulent took place years ago, and because Erickson offers only speculation that further
27 transfers might occur, there has been no showing of such urgency that imposition of a temporary 28 restraining order would be appropriate, as opposed to taking up the matter in the context of

1 Erickson's request for a preliminary injunction, on an expedited basis.¹

2 The matter will therefore be set for consideration of a preliminary injunction, with the 3 following briefing schedule. No later than May 19, 2017, Erickson shall file a supplemental brief
4 in support of a preliminary injunction. The brief shall address the issue of whether it is
5 permissible or appropriate for a judgment creditor to bring a separate action of this nature under 6 all the circumstances present here, including the pendency of motion proceedings in the prior
7 action, and the pendency of the appeal. Cf. Thomas, Head & Greisen Employees Trust v. Buster,
8 95 F.3d 1449 (9th Cir. 1996) (holding jurisdiction existed to entertain a "supplementary 9 proceeding" to set aside fraudulent conveyance in the same case where judgment had been entered). Given the inter-relationship of this matter to the prior case, Erikson shall also address 10 whether its prior consent to the jurisdiction of a magistrate judge should be deemed to extend to 11 this action as well, provided none of the new defendants decline to consent.

12
13 Defendants may file any opposition no later than May 23, 2017. The matter will then be 14 set for hearing or submitted for decision without argument, in the Court's discretion. Erickson is 15 directed to cause service of a copy of this order to be effected on defendants forthwith, and to file
16 proof of service thereafter.

17
18 IT IS SO ORDERED.

19
20 Dated: May 17, 2017

21
22 RICHARD SEEBORG
23 United States District Judge

24
25
26 ¹ The degree of any urgency must also be evaluated in light of the fact that the complaint herein
27 was filed nearly three weeks before a temporary restraining order was sought, and Erickson was aware of the circumstances it now contends warrant relief long before that, as evidenced by the motion practice in the prior action.